

Humanitarian Aid in times of war: organisation and ignorance

Pawlak, Mikołaj, (2022)

The author of this paper focuses on the organisation of aid for Ukrainian refugees in Poland. The question that is the basis of this paper is: Why, in the case of Ukrainian refugees, is there almost unanimity in organising aid, while in the past other categories of refugees were denied aid?

<https://doi.org/10.1177/017084062210991>

Topics:

Migration Military Mental health Forced Displacement Humanitarian aid Nato Training Language Humanitarian crisis Discrimination Sanctions Health Economy Armed forces Coordination Displacement Pole opinion Conflict NGO Employment disinformation education Shelter Crimea Donbas Integration Refugee refugees Collaboration Displacement Sites Healthcare Humanitarian Response Plan Putin Russia Policy Humanitarian Actions Supply chain Emergency Shelters Gender European Union UNHCR poverty Humanitarian law Inflation Age